Foreword

Welcome to our 2019 Show Jumping and Eventing Foal Auction!

It is our pleasure to introduce to you our best and most diverse selection of foals yet, handpicked from this year's British Breeding Futurity evaluations and from the Elite Foals Tour.

The auction is a wonderful opportunity to pull together the very best of high profile international stallions' offspring. We are delighted to be featuring foals from proven sires and performance horses such as the great Valentin R, Copy Cat Z, Luidam, - and of course - Canturano Z , as well as the global sensations Big Star, Casall Ask, Diamant de Semilly and I'm Special de Muze.

This is also a great opportunity to introduce offspring of new up-and-coming sires and to celebrate the excellent achievements of British breeders and stallion producers. We are therefore particularly delighted to include foals by young stallions standing in this country.

As always, we are proud of the wonderful damlines chosen by our breeders to provide you with the performance and breeding credentials to succeed at the very top of the sport. It was particularly nice to see an increasing number of mares with strong Showjumping mother lines.

Last but not least we are very excited to be finishing our auction on a high by offering an embryo from the legendary Wildrose ridden by Michael Whitaker to CSI5*, by the sensational Household name Big Star who's offspring In the past selling for a whopping €92,000 at foal auction.

We are looking forward to seeing you all at the auction. It will be a great pleasure to welcome you in the stables throughout Saturday to introduce you to our lovely foals and their breeders.

With best wishes

Your

AES and Brightwells Auctions Team
